Interior Summary

Location #2 1st floor is in a rectangular ~~structure~~ w/ a few lnd. Structure is ~~one~~ neutral color, old (ca. '40's or '50's) where paint has changed over the years.
 Structure is surrounded by open area, probably grassy, & more to it is strictly restricted. Inside are various & large rooms. Inside at least one room are objects, resembling functional type furniture - i.e., tab-type tables & desks. Some sort of highly complicated/festive type activity is conducted, possibly involving intricate parts. A sense of argument for small hand-tools & considerable manual dexterity is present. Further sense of "finding out what something does" - the idea of assembling something, & sitting back & scrutinizing what occurs. A further sense of a sort of "reverse engineering" - where the original function or means of operation isn't known, so someone works with it - takes it apart, puts it back, & tries to see what makes it tick... .
